

IID in Global Education Forums

The Network on Education Quality Monitoring in the Asia-Pacific (NEQMAP) is a knowledge sharing platform for the monitoring of educational quality in countries of the Asia-Pacific region. IID is representing Bangladesh in this UNESCO based network.

The People's Action for Learning Network (PAL Network) is comprised of fourteen countries working across three continents to assess the basic reading and numeracy competencies of all children, in their homes, through annual citizen-led assessments.

ASER South Asia is a regional hub of PAL Network that promotes citizen-led household-based assessment of students, using basic reading and arithmetic tasks.

Institute of Informatics and Development (IID) is a public policy institute promoting evidence-informed inclusive policy.

IID is registered as a nonprofit institute in Bangladesh.

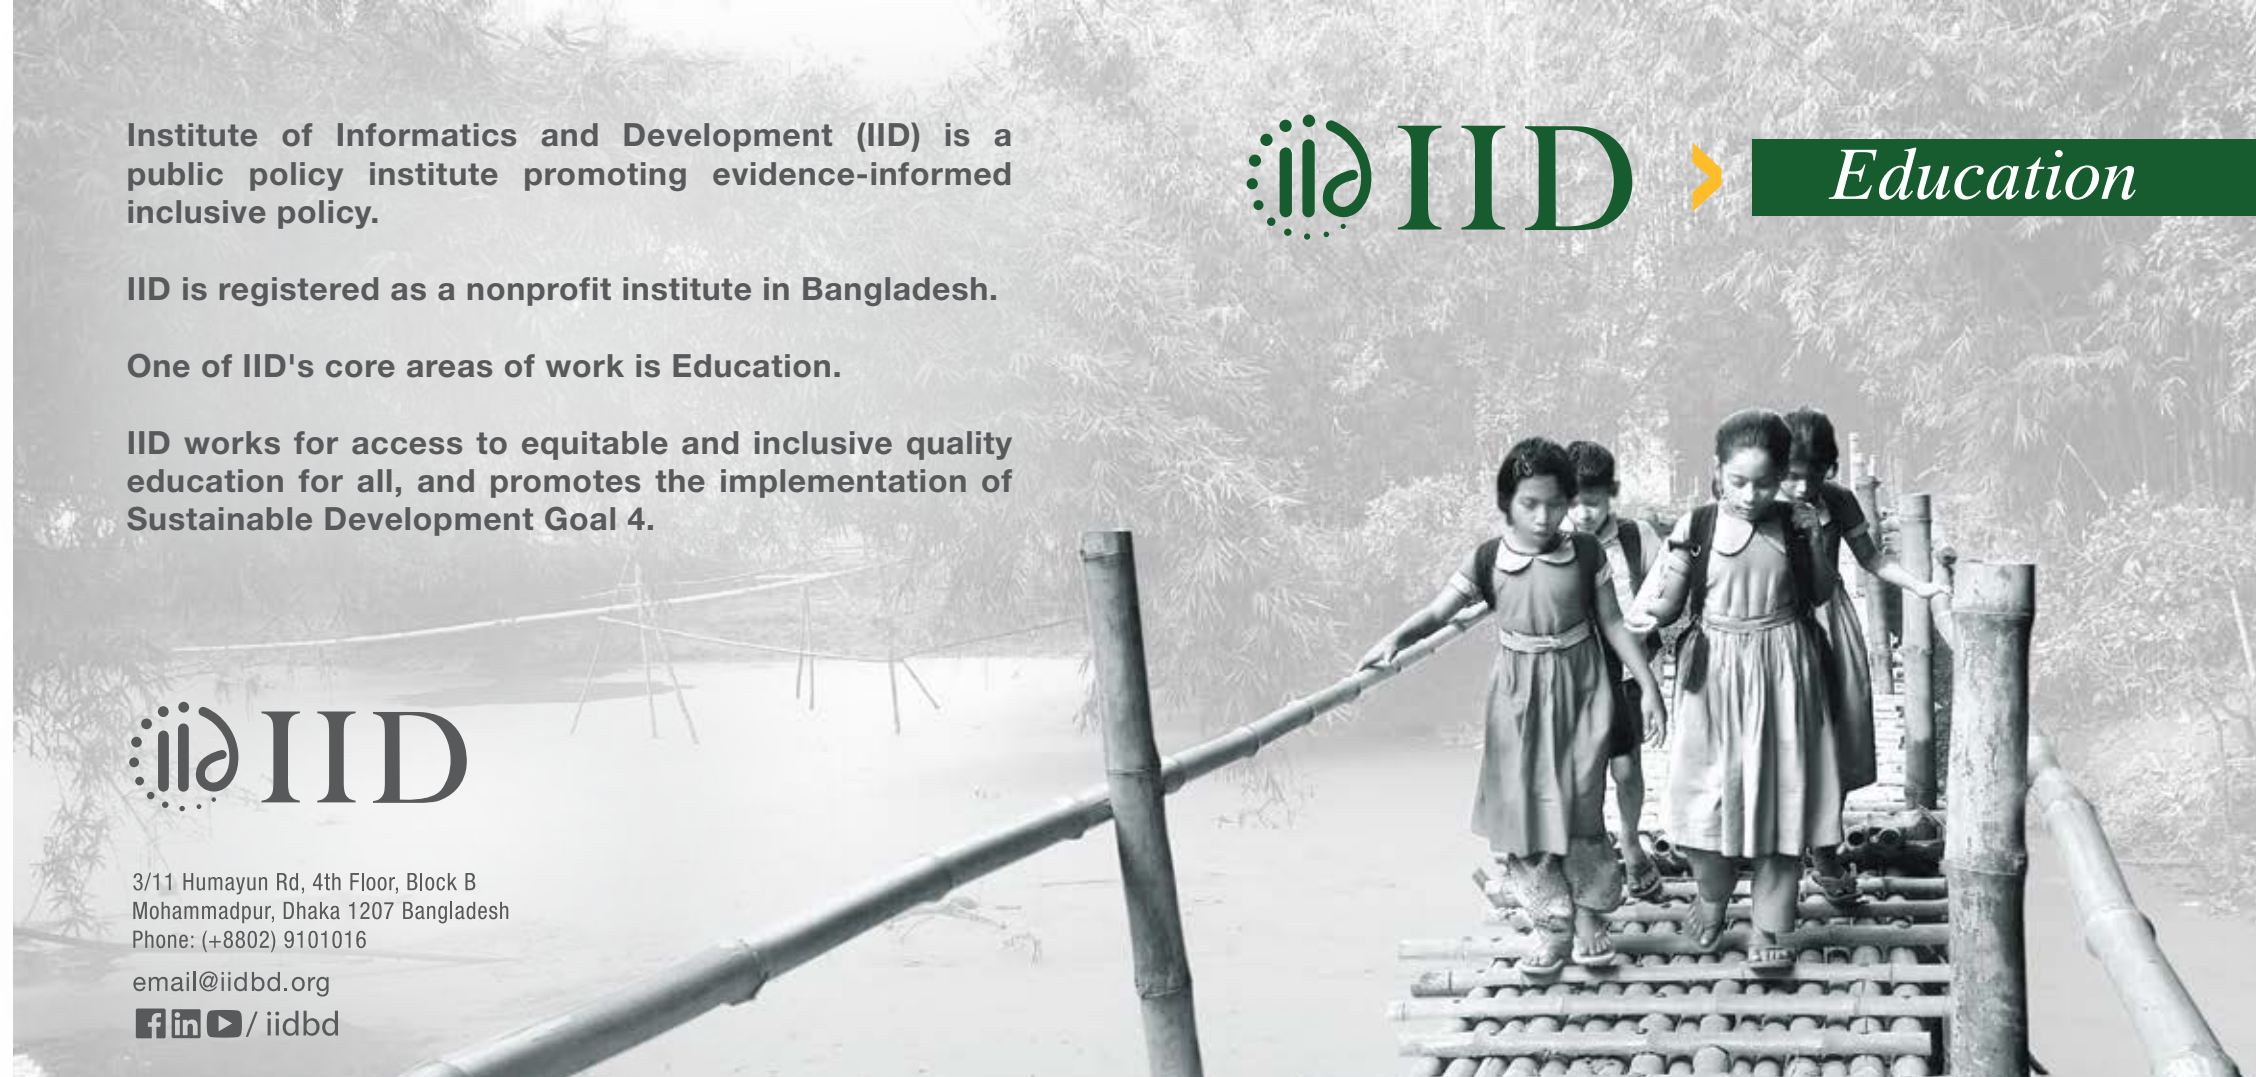

One of IID's core areas of work is Education.

IID works for access to equitable and inclusive quality education for all, and promotes the implementation of Sustainable Development Goal 4.

3/11 Humayun Rd, 4th Floor, Block B
Mohammadpur, Dhaka 1207 Bangladesh
Phone: (+8802) 9101016

email@iidbd.org

Education policy research

Policy audit on national education budget

Education program evaluation

Assesses and evaluates government and non-government education programs

Learning assessment

Assessment of children's basic learning competencies

Education policy brief

IID policy briefs on education

Education one pagers

One pagers and toolkits for advocacy for education

Visualizing education financing

Visual analysis of annual education budget

Education advocacy campaign

BRAC IID education advocacy campaign 2015

Policy advocacy

IID as the policy partner for the Libraries Unlimited initiative of British Council and Ministry of Cultural Affairs

Citizen report on education

Townhall meeting for sharing citizen report on education

