Youth for Policy promotes active involvement of youth in the public policy process. It organizes policy campaigns and evidence-based policy discourses on youth related issues, runs policy camps for young policy entrepreneurs and connects youth and volunteer networks with the policy community.

One of the major focus areas of youth for policy is fairer labour migration.

Youth for Policy initiatives include—

- Youth Manifesto
  An initiative to bring youth voices in electoral and political commitments

- Policy Camp
  A residential workshop to train and engage youth in public policy

- Youth Policy Forum
  A series to bring grassroots voice to national policy discourse
Fellows are regularly invited to national level policy discussions.

Fellow volunteers at local Technical Training Centres

Training on concepts and practices in public policy

Youth volunteers from around the country are invited and selected

Training on pluralism, youth opportunities and policy entrepreneurship

Field trips to collect evidence for policy

Policy Camp starts

Youth Policy Fellows

Policy Camp

Policy discussion with the Members of Parliament

Policy advocacy at policy forums with government officials

Session on evidence-based policy discussion

Independently conducted Policy Camp in the locality

Meeting at local government offices

Mindmaps and policy briefs based on collected evidence

Fellowship awarded to selected graduates

Policy Camp

Day 1

Day 2

Day 3

Day 4

Day 5
Analysis and Awareness
Campaign promises analyzed and awareness campaign initiated for the youth voters

Poll/consultations
Public poll on youth demands conducted and published as Youth Manifesto

Candidate Debate
Candidates debate on the approaches of implementing the demands raised by youth

Political Endorsement
Candidates endorse the Youth Manifesto, promising to implement those demands if and when elected

Post-election Follow-up
Implementation of Youth Manifesto and electoral promises reviewed with elected candidates

Continuous campaigns
Promotion of youth demands to put young voices at the forefront of policy discourse