

Migration Policy Unit

Action Research to support public campaigns, policy decisions and development programs

Impact Analysis of policies and programmes, and monitoring of global commitments on migration

Survey with online tools and GPS-enabled smart devices for large scale data collection making policy public for migration and development

Brief Reports such as Policy Briefs, One Pagers, Campaign Toolkits for non-technical audience

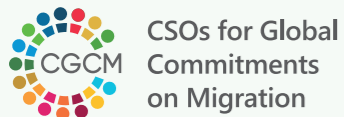

Visual Communication of research findings through data visualization, animations and illustrations

Capacity Building on policy issues through Policy Camp and workshops

Secretariat of Policy Breakfast for high-level policy discourse under Chatham house rules

Connecting people through frugal video conference 'Hello MP'

Policy Forum to bring out grassroots voices through community-level policy discussions

Bibhui an award winning approach for fairer labour migration

IID is a public policy institute registered as a nonprofit organization in Bangladesh under Section 28 of the Companies Act 1994.

IID Migration Policy Unit promotes better policy and practice in national and transnational migration governance by conducting rigorous research, promoting informed debates and creating platforms for policy engagement. Through innovative awareness campaigns and research communication, it also facilitates informed decisions on migration by individuals and institutions.

Vision

Making policy public for an informed, inclusive and democratic society

Mission

Inquire evidence for policy

Inform people and policy makers

Involve public in public policy

Values

Creativity

Adaptability

Inclusiveness

Happiness

Eco-Friendliness

Institute of Informatics and Development (IID)

19/5 Babar Road, 1st floor, Block B
Mohammadpur, Dhaka 1207 Bangladesh
Phone: +8801705405886

www.iid.org.bd/migration email@iidbd.org

f in v / iidbd